

Join Dr. Mark Meaney for a discussion on Organizational Ethics in a University: Practicing What We Teach.

Expected outcomes of the session include:

- Review the evolution of corporate compliance and ethics movement
- Discuss the integration of organizational ethics into an ethics and compliance program for Higher Education

Organizational Ethics in a University - Practicing What We Teach

December 1, 2010

10:30 - 11:30pm CST

Click on the link below to register

REGISTER NOW

Who Should Attend:

- Compliance Officers
- Internal Audit
- Risk Managers

About the Presenter:

Mark Meaney, Director of Ethics and Compliance, University of California System

Mark facilitates and supports all of the UC campuses, academic medical centers, national laboratories, and other UC departments in assuring compliance with applicable regulations, ethical standards, statutes and UC-specific policies. His focus includes all the elements of an effective ethics and compliance program with emphasis on program oversight, education and training, and auditing and monitoring.

Mark has a Ph.D. in Professional and Organizational Ethics and has designed and taught courses in Corporate Responsibility and Business Ethics at the undergraduate and graduate level.

The UT Systemwide Compliance Academy is a service for UT personnel only.
For more information regarding the UT Systemwide Compliance Academy, please visit
<http://www.utsystem.edu/compliance/SWCAcademy.html>

