DEFINITIONS & STATEMENTS

Primary Beneficiary means the person or persons who will receive the benefits in the event of the Insured's death. Proceeds will be divided in equal shares if multiple primary beneficiaries are named, unless otherwise indicated. If percentages are listed, the total of the combination must equal 100%.

Contingent Beneficiary means the person or persons who will receive the benefits if the primary beneficiary is not living at the time of the Insured's death.

Will or Trust as Beneficiary Designation can be done by using the following written statement: "To [name of trustee], trustee of the [name of trust], under a trust agreement dated [date of trust]." If you wish to designate a testamentary trust as beneficiary (i.e. created by will), you should recognize the possibility that your will which was intended to create a trust may not be admitted to probate (because it is lost, contested or suspended by a later will). Claim payment delays can result if the beneficiary designation does not provide for this situation. **

Minors as Beneficiary Designation can be done by using this document. However, please note if your beneficiary is a minor at the time of claim, payments may be delayed due to special issues raised by these designations. **

Dependent Beneficiary – In the event a dependent dies, the employee is the beneficiary of their life insurance proceeds.

Please note: Under Texas Law current employees/retirees of The University of Texas are unable to list an institution of The University of Texas System as a primary and or contingent beneficiary. You may want to obtain the assistance of an attorney to help consider any special circumstances before drafting your beneficiary designation.
