The election for the levy and collection of said taxes and the assumption of said bonds shall be in accordance with the provisions of the General Laws relative to Independent School Districts, provided, however, that no petition shall be necessary.”

Sec. 2. In the event any provisions, section, clause, or part whatsoever of this Act is declared unconstitutional or invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, the remainder of this Act shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect.

The fact that there is some question as to the procedure to follow in the annexation of an Independent School District or Districts, a Common School District or Districts to a Junior College District for Junior College purposes only, and the crowded conditions of the calendar, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each House be suspended; and this Act shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.
