

Summer Internship Program in Philanthropy

By the Numbers - 2016

256 Applicants → 20 Selected

Program Demographics

Graduate Career Paths*:

- 3 Higher education philanthropy
- 2 Nonprofit philanthropy
- 3 Private sector
- 3 Graduate school
- 2 Seeking opportunities in philanthropy

4 Males : 15 Females

*As of November 2017

2016 Summer Internship Program in Philanthropy

Results

“The intern experience was greatly enhanced by UT System and MD Anderson Development Office. It opens up a new world for students who have no knowledge of philanthropy.” - Intern at UT MD Anderson Cancer Center

“I’m grateful that this opportunity was open to all majors and classifications, and I feel that I both learned a lot and saw that my skills and knowledge have given me much I can contribute to this field.” - Intern at UT El Paso

100% of interns surveyed agree or strongly agree the experience provided a realistic preview of the development field.

100% of interns surveyed agree the program was a good or excellent learning experience.

100% of interns surveyed recommend or highly recommend the program to other students.

100% of intern supervisors surveyed agree or strongly agree their intern is highly motivated toward the development profession.

90% of intern supervisors surveyed agree or strongly agree their intern demonstrated the appropriate level of skills required to perform in the position.

“[Student’s] professionalism, her commitment to the internship each day, and her laser-focus attention to tasks and assignments are commendable. She leaves UTRGV in excellent standing. Interns like her will ensure a continued commitment to the program for years to come.” - Intern Supervisor at UT Rio Grande Valley

“The Center for Enhancing Philanthropy’s Summer Internship Program offered an enriching experience for our intern. The training provided to mentors in advance of the internship offered an excellent roadmap in terms of expectations, objectives, resources, and helpful tactics to make the internship experience productive and positive for both intern and host institution.”
- Intern Supervisor at UT Health Science Center at San Antonio