Summer Internship Program in Philanthropy
By the Numbers - 2017

249 Applicants
122 Eligible Applications

22 Students Completed

Program Demographics
5 Males
17 Females

Fall 2017 Career Paths:
2 Graduates working in philanthropy
2 Students completing school
4 Students working in various fields
7 Students working in philanthropy
7 Students seeking opportunities in philanthropy

Center for Enhancing Philanthropy
The University of Texas System | Office of External Relations
Summer Internship Program in Philanthropy
2017 Results

“I walked into this internship with a vague understanding of higher education fundraising, and walked out with transferable knowledge and skills that can be applied to any nonprofit setting.” - Intern at UT Dallas

“The is a great program that teaches students many aspects of the field of development.” - Intern at UT MD Anderson

90% of interns surveyed feel the program provided good or excellent preparation to enter work after the experience.

90% of interns surveyed feel the program provided a good or excellent preview and understanding of philanthropy as a career.

90% of interns surveyed recommend the program to other students.

87% of intern supervisors surveyed indicate interns demonstrated a good or excellent level of skills required for the position.

80% of intern supervisors surveyed provided agree interns are motivated toward the development profession.

“I cannot say enough about this wonderful program. It is well managed and System does a great job communicating with the interns and supervisors throughout the course of the program. The materials provided are extremely useful and help to ensure the success of the program, supervisors, and interns.”
- Supervisor at UT Southwestern

“[Intern] demonstrated exceptional professionalism and willingness to learn. We were extremely impressed with the final project, which demonstrated critical thinking and excellent understanding of both the processes that are already in place at UT Austin as well as a new way to utilize the database for future fundraising.”
- Supervisor at UT Austin